The soon to be famous - Jiggy Ray's Hillbilly Pit Pie

This is 16 inches of hand tossed dough, covered in Jiggy's original secret sauce and topped with slow smoke pulled pork, bacon, and a classic cheese blend that will melt in your mouth. Try it with our homemade coleslaw for an authentic taste of Southern BBQ. This is the best thing to come out of the mountains since moonshine.

The Original Jiggyrita

King Jiggyrita is the fifth cousin of the world famous Queen Margherita pizza of Italy. However, in true Itappalachian style we take our fresh tomatoes and add seasoned feta cheese and bacon, then finish the King off with fresh cut basil. Try this one with our homemade peppercorn parmesan sauce because you are a rebel. It's like a party for your mouth.

The Dalai Lama

Simply put, this pizza is...one with everything, within reason. Choose up to any 5 toppings.

The Itappalachian Meat Mountain

This pizza has more meat than a cattle drive. It comes with pepperoni, sausage, hamburger, slow smoked pulled pork and bacon. Also known as the Vegan Nightmare.

Huhu Hawaiian

Take your normal Hawaiian style pizza and add a little kick in the 'okole. This masterpiece comes with pineapple, ham, bacon, green peppers, jalapeños and banana peppers. Nani!

Sandwiches

The Itappalachian Legend $9

Slow cooked seasoned Italian beef on fresh baguette smothered in au jus then topped with our special blended cheeses, then toasted to perfection. Served with chips and napkins.

Gobble Gobble $9

A smoked turkey sandwich smothered in blended cheeses and topped with fresh spinach, roma tomatoes, sweet bread and butter pickles, honey mustard and of course...bacon. It's almost as much fun to eat it as it is to say it. This sandwich screams, "eat me pilgrim"! Served with chips.
